ABOUT US

NCQA is a non-profit, independent organization founded in 1990 dedicated to improve healthcare through measurement, transparency and accountability. We accredit health plans that represent nearly 180 million covered lives and operate the largest Patient-Centered Medical Home (PCMH) program in the country, with 1 in 6 primary care physicians practicing in an NCQA-recognized PCMH. NCQA is the measure steward for the Healthcare Effectiveness Data and Information Set (HEDIS®), which is the basis for nearly all value-based and performance measurement systems in the nation.
